

THE SULTANATE OF OMAN

Traditional Arabia at its very best

8 DAYS - STARTING MUSCAT 21 OCTOBER 2019

THE SULTANATE OF OMAN

Trip Outline

The Sultanate of Oman lies nestled into the south east corner of the Arabian Peninsula. The country has a rich history dating back over 100,000 year and in its more recent history has seen occupation by various foreign powers including the Persians, the Portuguese, the Ottomans and the British. Today the country is taking steady steps at modernising its economy whilst, at the same time remaining fiercely proud of its heritage. It's still one of the best places in the Gulf to experience traditional Arabia. Outside the larger more developed cities you will find mud brick villages surrounded by enormous date plantations. Traditional souks are busy with shoppers bargaining for jewellery, frankincense and other commodities. The country is rugged and beautiful with its towering mountains, rugged canyons and wadis, and its seemingly endless dunes. Crumbling forts stand guard over ancient towns and watch over long coastal stretches where, as in centuries past colourful fishing boats bob around in the blue waters of the Arabian Sea.

Our trip through the Sultanate starts in the sprawling modern capital of Muscat and will include the magnificent Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque, the Bait al Zubair Museum and the historic quarter of Old Muscat where we visit a local family for lunch and take a wander through the local souq. Inland we climb into the spectacular Western Hajar mountains and to historic Nizwa our base for exploring the local area including the mudbrick town of Al Hamra. We view the giant Bahla Fort and the nearby intimate Jabreen Castle which offers a fascinating insight into life in old Oman. We'll also take a village walk in picture perfect Misfat Al Abraeyen.

After admiring some of Oman's finest mudbrick architecture in the village of Ibra we turn south to the magnificent Wahiba Sands where, out amongst the dunes, we dine with a Bedouin family and enjoy the beautiful desert sunset from our comfortable campsite. The following morning we leave the dunes behind and head to the Arabian Sea coast to visit the Ras Al Jinz turtle reserve and to witness the age old craft of traditional Dhow boat building. It's then time return to Muscat stopping off at the spectacularly deep and narrow carved Wadi Tiwi and the must-see Bimmah sinkhole.

Throughout the tour local guides are employed to provide a wealth of background information and share their extensive local knowledge.

2019 ITINERARY - STARTS IN MUSCAT

MON 21 OCT: MUSCAT – Upon arrival at the Muscat International Airport you will be met and transferred to your hotel in the city. The balance of the day is at your leisure and we will plan to hold a short meeting in the evening before going out for an optional dinner.

TUE 22 OCT: MUSCAT – Following breakfast this morning we enjoy a half day tour of Muscat. First stop is the enormous Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque, the largest mosque in Oman. It blends Islamic, Middle Eastern and Omani architectural styles and is famous for its enormous rugs and its giant chandelier. The Bait al Zubair Museum is housed in a beautifully restored house and exhibits Omani heritage including handicrafts of silver, copper, clay, leather and textiles, historic photos, stamps and traditional daggers. Later there's time for a photostop at the Al Alam Palace before visiting the famous Muttrah Souk where you can haggle over anything from rugs, frankincense and jewellery. After lunch with an Omani family you are free to make your own discoveries. (B, L)

WED 23 OCT: MUSCAT-NIZWA – Today we head inland to the historic city of Nizwa. Set at the foot of some of Oman's highest mountains it is our base for 2 nights to explore the city and the surrounding historic sites including the forts of Jabrin and Bahla. On arrival we set off to experience the Souq, one of the oldest markets in Oman. It is renowned for its fine fruits, meats, sweets and vegetables but there is also an opportunity to shop for souvenirs and antiques and the silversmithing is considered amongst the best in the country. We will also visit the Nizwa Fort, a great example of old Omani architecture. It is a combination of a castle, a museum and a fort and for those who wish, you can make the climb the circular shape towers. Later there is free time to explore. (B)

THU 24 OCT: NIZWA-AL HAMRA-NIZWA – We have a busy day planned. First of all we have a photo stop at the ruins of the immense Bahla fort, with its stone foundations and walls and towers of unbaked brick. In contrast is nearby 17th century Jabreen Castle, perhaps the most beautiful historic castle in all of Oman with its well preserved interiors.. Unlike other similar structures it was never constructed as a fortification but more as a palace. We have lunch in the lovely traditional mudbrick town of Al Hamra and then travel on to Misfat Al Abrae'en Village where a walk shows the amazing agricultural terraces, beautiful alleys and old houses built on solid rock. We return in the afternoon to Nizwa. (B, L)

FRI 25 OCT: NIZWA-IBRA-WAHIBA SANDS – This morning we are off to the desert but not before a stop at the old town of Ibra. The principal town of the region it grew rich due to its location on the trade route between Muscat, Sur on the coast and Zanzibar. Continuing south we come into the rolling dunes of the Wahiba Sands where we spend our night at a comfortable permanent desert camp. We enjoy a meal with our Bedouin hosts and watch the magnificent sunset over the sand dunes and the rolling desert landscape. The stay offers a glimpse of a traditional way of life of the Bedouin that is fast disappearing. (B,L)

SAT 26 OCT: WAHIBA SANDS-RAS AL JINZ – Leaving our desert camp behind us we head down towards the coast stopping at magnificent Wadi Bani Khalid, a true paradise in the desert with its natural clear blue pools, intricate eroded rocks and beautiful waterfalls. We spend some time here to relax before continuing to the sea at Sur. One of the famous cities in the Persian Gulf for building wooden ships we watch craftsmen at work building the traditional sailing dhows. Our final stop for the day is at Ras al Jinz where we visit the Turtle Reserve. The reserve is world renowned for the nesting of the endangered green turtle and is considered one of the most important nesting concentrations on the Indian Ocean. This is one of the few places where you can watch these amazing sea-giants during nesting. (B)

SUN 27 OCT: RAS AL JINZ-MUSCAT – On our drive back to Muscat today we take a break at Wadi Tiwi, a truly beautiful wadi with the lush plantations giving it a different feel to most wadis. We also stop at the Bimmah Sinkhole and can take a swim in the beautiful clear turquoise waters before continuing back to Oman for our final overnight stay. (B)

MON 28 OCT: END MUSCAT – Our tour to Oman comes to an end today after breakfast. Additional accommodation is available for those who would like to stay on in Muscat. (B)
