MOROCCAN MOSAIC

Discover the many facets of this exotic and alluring destination

17 DAYS - STARTING CASABLANCA 14th SEPTEMBER 2022

MOROCCAN MOSAIC

Trip Outline

Morocco has experienced many waves of conquerors including Phoenicians, Carthaginians, Romans and Arabs, but it is the last of this group that has left the most enduring impression. Morocco is the oldest kingdom in the Muslim world and successive dynasties have left behind a rich culture and a wonderful heritage, including historic towns, ancient cities and spectacular monuments.

This exciting and comprehensive journey showcases the best of Morocco. We not only visit the celebrated cities of Tangiers, Rabat, Meknes, Fes and Marrakech but our tour encompasses lesser-known places we have discovered over the years including Sale, Chefchaouen, Tetouan and N’Kob, Merzouga and Ait Benhaddou in the south.

From Casablanca we travel to the capital Rabat and to the former pirate haven of Sale before following the coast to lovely Tangiers on the Strait of Gibraltar. Tangier has for centuries been Europe’s gateway to Africa. Turning south we visit Tetouan, nestled between the Rif Mountains and the Mediterranean, and then the blue washed mountain village of Chefchaouen with its stunning Kasbah. Next is the imperial city of Meknes and the stunning Roman ruins of Volubilis and in due course we reach the amazing city of Fes, with its maze of medieval souks and there’s time for a side-trip to the historical town of Sefrou.

Driving across the dramatic Middle Atlas, we arrive at Merzouga, where we ride camels into the golden sands of the Sahara. We now deviate from the traditional tourist route, travelling first alongside the Jebel Saghro and then into the lovely Draa Valley. We experience stunning landscapes, explore atmospheric towns and villages and enjoy lunch in a historic kasbah at Tamnougalt. This region of Morocco is a particular ‘Byroads’ specialty, and a major highlight of the trip. Four days allows ample time to experience this incredibly scenic region without hurrying through. Heading to the Atlantic coast, we then spend two nights in the delightful walled medina of Essaouira before driving to Marrakech where we visit all the major sights.

Throughout this tour you will experience some charming and atmospheric accommodation, including historic riads and authentic kasbahs.
