

UZBEKISTAN

Explore Uzbekistan and the fabled cities along the ancient Silk Road

12 DAYS - STARTING TASHKENT 28 August 2021

UZBEKISTAN

Trip Outline

Lying on the crossroads of the ancient 'Silk Road', Uzbekistan remains a mystery to the masses. For centuries the great cities of Samarkand, Bukhara and Khiva were important centres of trade, wealth, culture and learning and today they are among the most exotic cities of the Islamic world. Ancient mosques covered in shimmering tilework, crowned by stunning turquoise domes etch the skyline. Together with Tashkent, these three cities form the core of our journey through this ancient and extraordinary land.

In Tashkent the Uzbek capital we visit the Khast Imam complex and the Mui Muborak library which contains an original Koran dating from the 7th Century AD. Later we ride the metro, visit the State Museum of Applied Arts and explore the fabulous Chorsu food bazaar.

Next is legendary Samarkand, whose colourful history dates back over 2,500 years. Here we discover its most celebrated sights including the madrassas and mosques of the magnificent Registan and the Observatory of Ulugbek. A short drive away across the mountains is the World Heritage-listed Shahrisabz where we explore the ruins of the palace of the conqueror Timur. From Samarkand we visit the villages of nearby Urgut and Konigil, known for their ceramics, wonderful markets and ancient silk paper making workshops.

Alongside Samarkand, Bukhara is one of the great Silk Route cities of central Asia and two days allows ample time to see the principal sights and make our own discoveries.

We then travel across the desert steppe to Khiva, once a slave-trading Khanate, and the most intact and homogenous of our three ancient cities. Within its baked mud brick walls we visit a wonderful carpet and textile workshop and see some stunning vernacular architecture, exploring a number of mosques, madrasas and mausoleums.

An evening flight takes us back to Tashkent and our tour ends the following day.
